

Wave couch

Inspired by the desire to lounge around from time to time, we have created a couch that is both multi-functional and contemporary. You're in charge and can create the couch you want with our nine Wave couch elements. It has a slightly more active seat and can be combined with an inviting divan element. The overall shape of the couch can be traced back to Hollywood in the early 1970s and, thanks to its round curves, it will turn your living room into an inviting place to gather and relax.

Brut sofa

Contrasts don't have to be loud, instead they create balance and harmony. That's what you will experience with our Brut sofa. With its brutalist shape, playful height and generous seating areas, it lends body and strength to any space. The smooth curves give it an informal seat, while the low arm and back provide a more open space for optimal relaxation and comfort.

Jax couch

In need of rounded soft shapes with a playful twist? Then you can indulge yourself with our Jax elements. The endless combinations allow you to create a bold setup, for example combine a slatted bench as an intermediate element. Or go for a more luxurious look with the curvy 'Angle element'. Either way, Jax is versatile and forces you to be creative.

Nomad couch

The Nomad couch was inspired by the effortless charm of Mediterranean boutique hotels, where every detail feels curated yet inviting. We imagined rooms where linen sofas beckoned you to sink into their soft folds, where relaxation was the essence of luxury. This piece blends the warmth of southern Europe with pared-down functionality, offering comfort and style without pretense—a true reflection of spaces designed to make you feel at home.
